

The Peacemaking Task Force of Albany Presbytery

Welcomes all who yearn to make peace, particularly inviting representation from those congregations that participate in the Peacemaking Offering on World Communion Sunday. Meets the second Saturday, September through June, 10 a.m. to noon, Union Presbyterian Church, Schenectady.

Will welcome International Peacemaker Linda Macktaby (Lebanon/Syria) from September 21-28, 2012. Her itinerary will soon be available for all so that everyone can hear her reports.

Supports the Peacemaking Offering distribution of 50% to the General Assembly Peacemaking Program, 25% to presbyteries, and 25% to be retained by the local congregation as a way to live into Jesus' blessing of the peacemakers.

Prayerfully considers next steps for peacemakers as found through the Presbyterian Peace Fellowship, PHEWA, and the Peacemaking Program of the PC(USA).

Recommends participation in peacemaking conferences: Rev. Earl Johnson, Jr. attended a seminar at Ghost Ranch, July 2012.

Following Albany Presbytery's vote, affirms those Presbyterians who participate in the Occupy Movement with prayer, finances, and/or action.

The Peacemaking Task Force of Albany Presbytery

Welcomes all who yearn to make peace, particularly inviting representation from those congregations that participate in the Peacemaking Offering on World Communion Sunday. Meets the second Saturday, September through June, 10 a.m. to noon, Union Presbyterian Church, Schenectady.

Will welcome International Peacemaker Linda Macktaby (Lebanon/Syria) from September 21-28, 2012. Her itinerary will soon be available for all so that everyone can hear her reports.

Supports the Peacemaking Offering distribution of 50% to the General Assembly Peacemaking Program, 25% to presbyteries, and 25% to be retained by the local congregation as a way to live into Jesus' blessing of the peacemakers.

Prayerfully considers next steps for peacemakers as found through the Presbyterian Peace Fellowship, PHEWA, and the Peacemaking Program of the PC(USA).

Recommends participation in peacemaking conferences: Rev. Earl Johnson, Jr. attended a seminar at Ghost Ranch, July 2012.

Following Albany Presbytery's vote, affirms those Presbyterians who participate in the Occupy Movement with prayer, finances, and/or action.

